

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

10c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, Editor $1.50 Year In the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, SEPT. 30, 1940

TRYON IN THE NEWS

Editor Charles B. Smith of the Peoria (Ill.) Journal-Transcript, very much interested in this section of the country and for the past two years has been a subscriber first of the Tryon Daily Bulletin and then of The Polk County News. He has been keeping up with the news here. In his newspaper of Sept. 21, he reproduced Donald Peattie's article in the New York Times about Pearson's Falls and had the following about Tryon friends:

"Many Peorians enjoy the friendship of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred C. Bates, formerly of Maplewood, N. J. Mr. Bates, a member of the national advertising agency of Fralick & Bates, with former offices at 500 Fifth ave., New York and in Chicago, for nearly 40 years had Peoria connections that brought him occasionally to this city. Mr. Bates has now achieved the cherished ambition of years ago, retiring from active business a year or so ago, purchased a site of 11 acres in the foothills of the Great Smoky Mountains, the famous Piedmont district, the Thermal Belt, in North Carolina near the town of Tryon. He has built a beautiful residence overlooking a valley, and moved in last week. It is scenically one of the most favored places in the U. S. A. and the climate is as near ideal as the year 'round as heart could wish. Asheville, N. C., is 30 miles north and Spartanburg, S. C., 25 miles south. It is a country of fox hounds and horses and gracious living, the Old South harking back to antebellum days of peace and

Continued on Back Page

Church Training School Opens Tuesday At 7:30 P. M.

Over 100 people have registered for the Training School which opens at the First Baptist church, Tryon, tomorrow, Tuesday night, October 1st. Registrations may be made from 7 o'clock on and fees of 50c for adults, 25c for student members will be due.

A lending library will be a new feature of the Training School this year. Ministers will loan some of their finest books to the school to be loaned for one week to members who may wish to read the books. Members who have books and are willing to pass them on will be asked to do so.

Certificates of Attendance will be granted this year for attendance at six out of the eight sessions of the school. Last year 87 men and women obtained these certificates of proficiency.

The school commences with a few minutes of devotional exercises and will be followed immediately by a half hour lecture by Dr. Charles G. Sewall, on The Origin of the New Testament.

Any who wish to attend these lectures without attending the Training Classes for teachers may do so. Following this lecture Training Classes will be held, led by expert teachers and a course for adults, not intending to be teachers, will be given on The Prophets and their Ethical Outlook. All members of the community are welcome at the school. A telephone call to Dean B. G. Henry or Registrar Charles McGavern will bring more information if desired.