THE GOSPEL OF LOVE

in Old and New Testaments, Subject of Church School Lectures Tuesday.

The third session of the Inter-Church Training School will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 in the First Baptist church, Tryon, with the Rev. Mr. Stroud of Landrum leading the devotions. Dr. Sewall will give his third lecture, this time on that most beloved of New Testament Books, The Gospel according to St. John. He will take up the question of authorship, time of writing and contents and the interesting point as to whom this book was intended for. Dr. Taylor will discuss the Gospel of Love also, as it is shown in the Old Testament in the Book of Hosea. New members or people who cannot attend all lectures are invited to come for this one or any others which they may find it possible to attend, though the registration fee, being so small, is the same. Regular registrants are reminded that to qualify for the Certificate they must have an attendance of six out of the eight sessions.

Last week 103 people attended the classes of the school, with some 30 others in attendance coming for Dr. Sewall's lectures.—School Reporter.
