McDonald, 2nd vice-president; Robert S. McFarland, secretary; Nelson Leonard, treasurer; James E. Johnson, publicity. Executive Committee: Max Feagan, J. T. Arledge, W. H. "Shorty" McDonald, E. B. Hall, Worth Walker, Dan Ledbetter.

Membership Committee was named as follows: Melvin Hines, Worth Walker, Nelson Leonard, James Egerton, Vernon Wilson, Miss Thelma Mills.

Constitution Committee: Max Feagan, W. G. Egerton. C. P. Rogers.

Plans were made for a Democratic Rally and Membership Drive. President Egerton stated that anyone desiring to join should see any member of the membership committee.

Draft Board Organized

The Polk County Draft Board met on Thursday morning at the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., office and elected Julian B. Hester as chairman; and S. L. Feagan, secretary. No action was taken on the appointment of a permanent clerk, the only position that pays a salary. Temporary quarters will be maintained at the bank until a suitable location is found. The government doesn't authorize any rent expense.

ABOUT FRIENDS

On the woman's page in the Christian Science Monitor of October 11, is a feature article about Myra Hess, noted concert pianist, and a photo of her and Mrs. Reginald Grenfell, daughter of Mrs. M. B. Flynn of Tryon. In speaking of a noted group meeting the article says: "Joyce Grenfell was there too. She helps in the canteen and is a great friend of Myra Hess's. She is a niece of Lord Astor and a star on her own account. She made her reputation overnight, as it were, in Herbert Farjeon's 'Little Review'. And that's quite an interesting story. For Mr. Farjeon saw her entertaining some friends at a private house, and then and there asked her to come into his review—which, after some hesitation, she did."

Tryon House Honored By House Beautiful Magazine

Russell Walcott and Shannon Merriwether, Tryon architects, have just received a $50 check from the House Beautiful magazine in its 13th annual awards to designers and architects of attractive new homes. The house receiving the honorable mention is that of Miss Ellen Holt and Miss Elizabeth Webster which is located in the Overlook section of Gillette Woods. The contest was nationwide and included three other prize winning houses one in San Francisco, Boston and Philadelphia. The Auberge, Tryon Theatre and the Cotton Patch are among some of the structures built under the direction of the local architects.
