Bunte-Jackson

Miss Rachel Chapman Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr., and Mr. Louis Bunte, son of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Edward Bunte of Marshall, Mo., were married on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Erskine Memorial Congregational church with the pastor, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, officiating.

The church was decorated with large standards of woodwardia fern and southern smilax, two large baskets of white chrysanthemums and five standards of seven-branched candelabra. Family pews were marked with bouquets of white chrysanthemums tied with ribbons.

A program of wedding music was presented by William Bradley of Spartanburg, organist, and Mrs. E. M. Putney of Atlanta, sister of the bridegroom, soloist. Before the ceremony the selections heard included Wagner's "Pilarim's Chorus," Bach's "Jesu, Joy in Man's Desiring," "Reverie," by Walter Spry, former teacher of the bride, "Andante Cantabile" by Tschaiakowsky, vocal solo, "Thank God for a Garden," by Del Riego, Schubert's "Ave Maria", and another solo, "For You Alone." "O Perfect Love" was played during the ceremony, and Wagner's wedding march was used as the processional and Mendelssohn's as the recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a period gown of candlelight satin, with fitting basque waist, sweetheart neckline, long tight, leg-o-mutton sleeves very full skirt and flaring train. She carried the handkerchief
