A Hallowe'en party will be held at the Tryon school gymnasium on Saturday night, October 26th, at 7:30. After the primary graders leave at 9 there will be a combination square and round dance for the high school. Admission prices are five and ten cents The Tryon high football team will welcome Welcome Friday when Welcome comes to play the locals. The Beta Club will meet on Thursday, October 31st, at Holland Brady's home. Students eligible for membership are Gelolo Iris Kell, Joyce Edney, Elizabeth Anne Vining, Bill Mebane and Ella Foster The United States Department of Zoology brought an exhibit of small lizards of the United States to our school Monday The Eleventh grade had more parents at the P.-T. A. meeting Monday afternoon than any other grade . . . Among recent visitors at the school were Mr. and Mrs. Seneca M. Gamble of Springfield, Mass. Mr. Gamble is a brother of Miss Mary Gamble, teacher of the Sixth grade At the Western Carolina teachers convention, Miss Myrtle Baldwin was elected as secretary of the Modern Languages Department Congratulations to the Juniors; they had 11 on the honor roll! . . . The Eighth graders are carrying on an extensive correspondence with Eighth grade pupils in Oglesby, Ill., judging from the number of letters seen about school Not at the school is becoming infested with rats, but there are several white ones in the home ec. room being used for experiments. (One disappeared over the weekend. Did it die or?) . . . The public is invited to the Fifth grade's assembly period. There will be witches, goblins and ghosts, for it's the Hallowe'en program. Each member of the grade will take part.
