

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N C., MONDAY, OCT. 28, 1940

CURB REPORTER

Tryon has two boys on the Milligan college football team, Bill Blackwell and Charles Ford. Romney Wheeler, sports writer of Atlanta, Ga., writing in the Asheville Citizen, says: "Break out a cheer for little Milligan college of Johnson City, Tenn. Its football team is undefeated and untied in five games, scoring 70 points against its opponents six" Peggy Lincoln, sophomore at W. C. U. N. C., and former Tryon school editor is now a head writer on her college newspaper, the Carolinian Field Secretary Calhoun of the American Red Cross was in town Friday and he reports that Tryon Daily Bulletin containing Red Cross News is passed around among the officials in Washington as evidence of the good Red Cross work done in Polk County George Aid, graduate student at University of North Carolina in having his address changed says the Bulletin is almost like a letter from home And a letter from Cadet R. F. Zogbaum, Jr., U. S. Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla., subscribes to the Bulletin in order to keep up with home news. Cadet Zogbaum was a reader of the Bulletin while a student at Yale. His father, Captain Rufus Zogbaum was a commander at Pensacola before retiring to Tryon and his grandfather. Rufus Zogbaum was a noted paint-

-----Continued On Back Page-----

PUBLIC INVITED TO COURT TONIGHT

The Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor will be held tonight at 7:30 at the Parish House. The public is invited to attend. Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, chairman, will preside. Scout Executive R. M. Schiele will show coloured motion pictures of Yellowstone National Park immediately following the Court of Awards.

Masons Meet Tonight

The Jeff L. Nelson Masonic Lodge No. 605 will hold its regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at Missildine's Hall.

Polk County Farmers Grow Less Cotton

The federal government census report shows that 1,821 bales of cotton were ginned in Polk County from the 1940 crop prior to October 18th, as compared with 2,701 bales for the crop of 1939, according to J. Burchell Beam, special agent at Ellenboro.

CHILD KILLED BY AUTO

Ray Smith, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Zira Smith of the Sunny View section was accidentally killed Sunday afternoon by an automobile. He died before reaching the Rutherfordton hospital.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at Big Level church with Rev. Mr. Allman officiating.

He is survived by his mother, three brothers and one sister.

Dr. B. B. Bishop will be in charge of the Tryon Kiwanis club program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon.