

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SMITH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N C., THURS., OCT. 31, 1940

ROTARY GOVERNOR COMING FRIDAY

Joe E. Timberlake

J. E. Timberlake, a member of the Rotary Club of Columbia, S. C., will attend the meeting of the Rotary Club of Tryon on Friday, November 1st, in his official capacity of Governor of this Rotary district.

He will meet with President B. G. Henry, Secretary W. E. Kilpin, and the other officers and members of the Rotary Club of Tryon to consult with them and advise on matters relating to club administration and Rotary service activities.

CURB REPORTER

Postmaster W. H. Stearns says that parcel post shipments to many foreign countries have been discontinued on account of the war, but that to those countries still open to parcel post, packages will be accepted now for Christmas mailing

Virginia Kelly of Tryon, sophomore at Radcliffe college, designed all the costumes for the Radcliffe Dramatic club's first play of the season, and she helped make them. The play was Aria Da Capo by Edna St. Vincent Millay.

. . . . Ruth Lincoln of New York and Tryon, a graduate of Randolph-Macon, a talented musician and writer, has accepted a position with the Rockefeller Foundation at Rockefeller Center, New York. . . . NEW AUTO TAGS!

Patrolman Miller states that all persons who have automobile tags that have faded beyond recognition can get new ones free of any cost from the Rutherfordton or Hendersonville office

Mrs. James Scripps Booth of the noted newspaper family, who is now at the Auberge will return to Detroit on Sunday. She has been coming to Tryon for about 30 years and expects to return again in February. . . .

Tryon's football team will have to marshal all its strength on Friday to beat Marshall at Harmon Field at 3:30 p. m. An enthusiastic fan helps the spirit of the home team.