

Come Tuesday, will be election day. Let all vote, and vote because it is a privilege to vote. Do not sell your right to vote, it is unlawful. To be living in a country where we are allowed such rights, the power to participate or take part in the establishment or management of government is too great a thing to be measured in dollars and cents. Do not treat lightly the precious privileges of citizenship. Citizenship in Beautiful America, where we are endowed with the rights of life, liberty, the enjoyment of the fruits of our own labor, and the pursuit of happiness is too honorable a thing to be treated lightly on election day. Think of countries where one hasn't the right to turn a radio dial as they like, and on election day—remember you are an AMERICAN!—Bessie H. Collins.
