

BANKS TO CLOSE ON ELECTION DAY

The Tryon Bank & Trust Co., and the Mutual Bank of Landrum will close on Tuesday, November 5th, for the general election, according to Cashier John G. Landrum, Jr.

Did You Get a Turkey?

If you have an order for a turkey won at the Hallowe'en party on Thursday night please present it at once to Elbert Nanney at the Cotton Patch, so the committee can pay for it.

Friends of Marion Smith, Republican candidate for tax collector of Poik County, have a page advertisement in today's Bulletin, soliciting the support of the voters in the election of Tuesday, November 5th.

Mrs. J. S. Gittings of Annapolis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brooks, has arrived in Tryon for the wedding of Miss Mary Sharp to Mr. Carlos Lavenas this afternoon.

The Baptist Woman's Missionary society will meet on Tuesday at 3:30 p. m., with Mrs. J. W. Taylor. The program will be in charge of Mrs. W. R. Hoots

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Foster, who spent the summer at Burt Lake, Mich., have returned to Tryon and have taken an apartment at the Spanish Court.

REMEMBER to notify the Bulletin of any changes in addresses of the men in the army, navy and air service. Mr. Jerry Drew is preparing a card index file of the names of all men in the service. Drop us a postal or phone Mr. Drew, if you prefer.

Prof. and Mrs. James Brooks a few days ago since returned from a ten-day auto trip to Mobile, Ala., where they visited their daughter, whose husband, E. H. Hopson is a supervising engineer on the vehicular tunnel now being constructed under Mobile Bay. They also visited their son and his family in Atlanta enroute.

A daughter was born on Friday afternoon at St. Luke's hospital to Mr. and Mrs. George Comer.

Tryon received about two and a third inches of rain during Thursday night and Friday, according to Observer W. W. Creasman.

The Men's Civic Club of Landrum on Thursday evening resolved itself into a committee to Defend America By Aiding the Allies in line with the William Allen White movement and a majority of the members present agreed to write postals to their State Congressmen urging all possible aid to Britain short of war. In a brief talk on "Why I Am NOT an Isolationist" Prof. James Brooks brought the matter to the attention of the club and their response was spontaneous and enthusiastic.

Lanier Club Notice

The Lanier club will meet on Thursday, Nov. 7th, at 3:30 p. m. at the Library. Speaker: James Dawson.—Adv.

FOR SALE: Three puppies of unknown ancestry; black and tan color. Will give proceeds to the Mobile Canteen fund. Mrs. J. A. Reynolds in the Hunting Country.—Adv.

Enjoy
Golf and Tennis
RECREATION
at
TRYON
COUNTRY
CLUB