

GREETINGS!

This is a season of Greetings. A time to spread Good Will and Happiness everywhere possible.

The two official Thanksgiving Days, Christmas and New Years offer opportunities to express our appreciation of the spiritual values of life.

Some people have the gift to express in words what is in our hearts and they have written on attractive cards these messages for your benefit. Come in and make your selection now.

Friends appreciate unusual gifts of charm. Gifts that constantly remind one of pleasant things to remember.
