Skeet Today

The Tryon Boy Scouts were dressed in their uniforms this morning ready to take their part in the defense of America by helping the cause that's helping the suffering in England. They were on the job to act as guides and directors of traffic for the Skeet Shoot being held today at the Walter Hill's place. The fancy shooting exhibition will be held at 2:30. Squads will be competing all afternoon. Prizes will be awarded the winners. The proceeds of the shoot are to be used to help buy a Mobile Canteen. Only $200 more is needed.

Cooke - Kittrell

The following invitation has been received by friends in Tryon: "Mrs. Wilbur Carter Cooke requests the honour of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Gertrude Burnett, to Mr. John Arthur Kittrell, on Tuesday evening, December the third, at half after eight o'clock. The First Presbyterian church, Spartanburg, South Carolina."

Today's Headlines

The Greeks are jubilant over their victory in chasing the Italians out of their country and then going on to capture Koritzza, an important Italian supply base. The Italian equipment, munitions, etc., left on the roadside were so much that it was difficult for the Greeks to follow the Italians.

Turkey has placed the Dardanelles under martial law and say they will fight the Bulgarians if they attempt to attack.
