Merchandise Skeet Shoot and Field Day A Great Success For Fun and Finances

A total of $176.35 was raised for the Mobile Canteen Fund at the Merchandise Skeet Shoot on Saturday at Many Levels.

The shooting prizes were awarded as follows:

High Squad: $10, Preston Capt., Holmes, McDonald, Jervey and Bartol.

Second High Squad: $5, Erskine Capt., Kerhulas, Mahler, Smith and Brown.

Consolation Low: $2, Brannon, Capt., Eargle, Cathey, Arledge and Hancock.

High Gun: $5, Chas Conrad.

Second High Gun: $3, John Moore.

Consolation Low Gun: $2, Geo. Cathey.

High Team of Two: $5, John Moore and Julian Hester.

Second High Team of Two: $3, Chas. Conrad and Capt. Zogbaum.

Consolation Low Team: $2, McCall and Dr. McCall.

Two of the prizes were returned by the winners, to help the Canteen Fund over the top. Altho the committee tried to insist that the prizes be retained by the winners.

The mystery of the turkey raffle was finally solved. You merely tried to guess its weight. Sheriff W. D. Hines was the nearest guesser, within 1½ ounces—pretty good—and took home the nice juicy big bird.

Fred Nash of Spartanburg acted as official referee and scorer for the day and with Mr. Crawford—also of Spartanburg, put on an exhibition in mid afternoon

Forest Service Traps Adult Deer For Stocking New Refuges

Asheville, Nov. 25.—Over 200 adult deer will be captured in live traps during the current winter on the Pisgah National Forest Game Preserve in the Pisgah National Forest, for transfer to refuges in other parts of the south. Cleverly designed deer traps of box type have been constructed throughout the refuge for luring the deer to safe crates in which they may be transferred to other refuges.
