CURB REPORTER

Donations for the Christmas street decoration are coming in. Send them to Chairman George A. Cathey, C. J. Lynch or the Bulletin office The Hendersonville Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs entertained the Hendersonville football team with a dinner at a joint meeting last week . . . Coach M. B. Caldwell of the Tryon school states that basketball practice will begin this week. Principal Millsaps of the champion Sunny View school team reports the same for his school. Adams-Millis and Grey Hosier Mills opened the season in Polk with a game at Columbus on Friday at Stearns gym Now is the time to advertise Christmas merchandise, and no cheaper medium can be found than the Tryon Daily Bulletin. It prints over 1200 copies every day and several people read each copy. The total runs into thousands. To buy post cards would cost $12.00. Then you would have to find a good mailing list of the people you want to reach, then you would have to hire some one to address them, and then you have another expense in having your message typewritten, or done by hand. A post card space in the Bulletin costs about $2.25 and we do the addressing and mailing Tryon colored people raised about $15 for the British War Relief at Garrison
