HERE FROM CHINA

R. J. "Jack" Metcalf, U. S. Marines, has arrived from Portsmouth Navy Yard for a 15 days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Metcalf. Jack has been in Shanghai, China, for the past four years and has many interesting accounts of the Shino-Japanese war. He thinks the Chinese will finally win because there are too many of them. As soon as they get some modern fighting equipment they'll drive the Japs out of China. He brought home some interesting pictures of the results of several battles. One of the pictures shows the dead people floating on the water.

CONCERT AT LANIER LIBRARY

We often hear it said, regretfully, that Tryon is a little too far from the Asheville and Spartanburg musical advantages. Wednesday evening the tables are to be turned, and the neighboring towns are desirous of coming to us for a musical treat.

Mr. Mark Wollner, violinist, with Miss Mary Brooks as accompanist, are giving a program that will have a wide appeal. All sorts of music lovers may count on an evening of real enjoyment.

The recent improvements at the Library have given it an atmosphere that is suited to a gala evening, and such it promises to be—a real "opening night" for the season's Christmas festivities.

GUNS, PISTOLS WANTED

Capt. Rufus Zogbaum has been appointed to receive old guns, pistols, helmets and ammunition for the defense of the British homes in case of invasion. The National Committee in New York reports that already it has received 1,131 guns, 914 revolvers, 514 binoculars, 136,881 rounds of ammunition. Anyone having such instruments to aid the British in the defense of their homes may leave them in Tryon at the British War Relief office upstairs over Buchanan's 5&10c store.

Masons Meet Tonight
