TRYON FIRST GRADE PROGRAM WEDNESDAY

The First grade pupils of the Tryon school under the direction of their teachers Miss Sue Johnson and Mrs. V. T. Barnette will present the playlet, "The Arrival of Santa", Wednesday, Dec. 11, at 12 o'clock in the school auditorium.

On the stage at first will be seen Laura Ann Nanney, Billy Schilletter and Ray Melton reading a long letter to Santa. Presently Santa, played by Volney Barnette, Jr., arrives, but at the front door and without his pack, much to the surprise of the children. He tells the children that he has lost the Spirit of Christmas, because children everywhere have become so selfish and that he can't give any toys until he finds it. The children promise to help him find the Spirit; but are very much puzzled since it is something that can't be seen. However, with the aid of some of their schoolmates, which include Bill Goodwin, Sue Hipps, Margaret Johnston, Vance McCown, Patricia Parker and Wiley White and the brownies and the fairies, they do find the "Spirit".

Each pupil in the grade is in the program.
