Christmas At The Health House

The Polk County Unit of the American Women's Hospitals met in the Parish House on Wednesday of last week to plan for Christmas at the Health House. The first order of business was to replace two very efficient former officers, Mrs. Samuel Bingham, Jr., and Miss Kate Carmen. Mrs. Allen Jervey, Jr., was elected secretary and Miss Faye W. Sprague, treasurer.

Each year the Unit, with the assistance of interested friends, remembers the children and young people at Mill Spring, Cooper's Gap and Pea Ridge. The Christmas party at Mill Spring will as usual be for the colored people, Mrs. George L. Canfield, director. The date Saturday, Dec. 28, 3 p. m., Mrs. Allen Jervey, Jr., and Miss Faye Sprague will head the committee in charge at Cooper's Gap; Monday, Dec. 30, 3 p. m., the party at the Katherine Beatson Health House; Pea Ridge, Friday, Dec. 27, 3 p. m., will be directed by Mrs. R. M. Limbert. The local chairmen in charge of decorations, etc., will be Mrs. Dorothy Heitman, at Cooper's Gap, and Mrs. Arthur Thompson at Pea Ridge. Mrs. Canfield and assistants will purchase the candy, oranges, etc., and make bags for same. Any one wishing to contribute time or money is invited to get in touch with the chairmen, or leave money with Miss Capps, at Missildine's. Can you play an accordion? A beautiful instrument is available. Who will vol-
