EXIT THE "APPEASER"

If there was ever a time when we needed to weigh our words, examine our phrases and "slogans", and cast overboard a lot of senseless expressions it is the present.

The White Committee for Defending America by Aiding the Allies is doing a good service to the country in this respect.

Among other statements of policy in its recent pronouncement is one regarding appeasement, a word being bandied about of late with no clear understanding of what it implies. In many gatherings of those who hope to be heard for their much speaking, the opinion is being expressed that we might as well face the possibility of making terms with the so-called new order of world affairs, (merely a new name of the old order of Germany-over-all) and get down to business; business meaning trade with somebody. The "loud speakers" do not follow through to the extent of defining the issue or explaining how a country with our form of government and economic set up could trade on any conceivable basis with a Hitlerized world. Mr. White clears the issue by saying: "If Hitler were in power there would be a short armistice entirely favorable to him. Did it help Norway to guard carefully her neutrality? Did it help Czechoslovakia to capitulate? Look at peaceful Denmark. We shall not be attacked because of our moral attitude but because of our worldly goods. A robber who knocks out his man at night does not inquire as to his politics.

Appeasement is treason to Democracy. Dr. Robt. Millikan of the California Institute of Technology in a recent broadcast said: "If the present world catastro-phies can have the effect of waking up the democracies to take their ostrich heads out of the sand and begin to look around at the dangers that confront them and then take proper action to guard against them, it may possibly compensate for the terrific losses already entailed and still in prospect . . . Eternal vigilance is the price of progress. The Wm. Allen White Committee is unquestionably the largest, the best known, and the most effective organization to combat the return of the isolation sentiment which is still active, and which actually serves the purpose of our deadliest enemies."
