ENGLAND
 CHRISTMAS EVE NIGHT

Our gentle Brother, Man of Galilee,
 Who, on our cross is crucified again . . .
 Who passed from mortal sight through Calvary
 That He might come, the Comforter of men
 So weary, we, of pain and bomb and blood,
 We have no gift to offer You to-night,
 Unless it be our faith in Brotherhood . . .
 This torch we hold aloft, this one unflick'ring light . . .
 And far removed from those Wise Men, we are
 Bewildered men . . . and yet, because of You,
 We come to worship, we have seen your Star . . .
 Because you lived and died, we follow through!
