PA AND THE TURKEY

sons are gazing at me. From this day forth I am for canned turkey."

All that happened in millions of homes in recent months. Every year it is a feature at Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year dinners. Something must be done about it. But what? Perhaps nothing can be done for the fathers of today, but let us think of those to come. Modern education has courses in home cooking, dressmaking, and other domestic accomplishments for girls. Boys are taught woodworking, and other vocational subjects. Why not a course in the carving of turkeys?

We submit the plan to the wise men and women who direct the education of youth. If they ignore it, there "ought to be a law."—Spartanburg Herald.
