

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 8, 1941

CURB REPORTER

The Polk County Draft Board has been notified that Polk County will be called on to furnish one Negro soldier for Ft. Bragg on January 30th. There are 366 in the call from the whole state. Chairman Julian Hester says a list of white soldiers drafted will be given out in a few days from the volunteer list Vance Connor of Connor's Creek lost his house by fire on Monday night according to reports coming to Tryon Tuesday Tryon is now just six hours from New York by airplane schedule according to E. Perry Manville's ad in today's Bulletin. The airplane leaves Greenville, S. C. at 4:35 a. m. and reaches New York at 9:45, just 5 hours and 10 minutes later. According to the way young people attend dances, a fellow could leave Tryon in the afternoon, attend a dance in New York that night and be back in Tryon next morning for a full day's work. What would our covered wagon ancestors say! Old English type is very pretty but very hard for advertising purposes. For example the title line, "The Tryon Daily Bulletin" on front page is in old English. From all over the nation we have received mail addressed "Organ Daily Bulletin," "Oregon Daily

-----Continued on Back Page-----

Baptist Missionary Society Met Tuesday Afternoon

The Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held its first meeting of the year on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Misses Ruth and Daisy McFee. After the devotional which was led by the program chairman, Mrs. R. H. Brady, Rev. B. G. Henry addressed the group on "Loyalty to Our Church During 1941."

During the business session the officers for the New Year took charge. They are as follows:

President, Mrs. B. G. Henry; first vice-president, Mrs. T. J. Kennedy; second vice-president, Mrs. J. T. Arledge; secretary, Mrs. R. H. Brady; treasurer, Miss Ruth McFee.

Business for the New Year was discussed. The hostesses served tea and sandwiches during the social hour. Several visitors were present.

Scout Founder Passes

The Chief Scout of the World, Lord Robert Baden-Powell, the founder of the Boy Scout movement, is dead, according to radio reports this morning from South Africa where the beloved Scouter died at age of 83.

He established the first Boy Scout camp in the English channel in 1907, and in 1908 wrote "Scouting for Boys". The idea of Scouting was so popular that the movement spread rapidly all over the world.

Former Ambassador Bullitt urges America to declare war on Germany and Italy.