

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 9, 1941

Fun, Frolic, Fellowship Scheduled for Clerks And Carriers of Post Offices In Dist. Here January 18th

Tryon Post Office staff will be hosts at a banquet, entertainment and dance at Sunnysdale on Saturday evening, January 18th, beginning at 6 o'clock, when the Western North Carolina Clerks-Carriers and their wives and sweethearts will hold their quarterly meeting here. Secretary G. Isham Henderson is in charge of arrangements.

The program has been announced as follows:

Six O'clock—Registration.

Seven O'clock—Time to dine.

Song—America (1st verse only)

Invocation—Rev. Geo. M. Schreyer, pastor First Methodist church.

Address of Welcome—Chas. J. Lynch, realtor. "It Can Be Done".

Response—C. A. Oglesby, for Clerks; J. W. Blanton for Carriers.

Special Song—Mrs. G. M. Schreyer.

Introduction of Guests—National and State Officers.

Introduction of Speaker.

Address—Major Stone, the "Sage of Swannanoa."

Novelty Skit—Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Flynn, Tryon's Ambassadors of Fun.

Short Business Session—J. W. Blanton in charge.

Adjourn to mingle with friends and frolic to your heart's content.

Erskine Church Will Be 50 Years Old In August

In presiding over the annual meeting and supper of the Erskine Memorial Congregational church on Wednesday evening at Sunnysdale, the pastor, Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, stated that the church would be 50 years old in August and that a committee would be appointed to make plans for an appropriate celebration of the event. The little church was organized in August, 1891 by the Rev. A. H. Missildine, father of Mayor E. E. Missildine. Dr. Lincoln read pastor Missildine's first annual report of January 1892 and it showed a membership of 17, a small but enthusiastic beginning due to the spirit of the founders of the church.

After the supper Wednesday night the choir led the assembly in singing of hymns. An added feature was a violin solo by Miss Margaret Sprague with Miss Ann Clark as accompanist.

Reports from the various organizations of the church showed a splendid year of achievement in service, and the church and Sunday school treasurers reported a balance in each organization, and all debts paid. Progress was shown in the campaign to raise funds for the church addition for the Sunday school.

A budget of nearly $4,000 for the coming year was adopted.

Officers elected are as follows: Deacons for two years: C. M. Howes, F. K. McFarland.

Trustees for three years: Mrs.

-----Continued on Back Page-----