HERE 'N' YONDER

By James E. Johnson

Casualties were listed as several fence posts, yards of garden wire, two wash tubs, one prisoner and one that got away, here last night when Amos Foster, Deputy from the sheriff's department gave chase to a car loaded with 15 gallons of mountain whiskey and after several minutes pursuit from highways into byways, across vacant lots and gardens, thru yards and almost into the side of a house in the eastern part of town.

After the dust from the driver's fleeing feet cleared the deputy found himself in sole charge of the Ford car, the 15 gallons of non-tax-paid whiskey and a girl occupant who was booked at the county jail as Grace Hendricks, of Landrum, S. C. Arrest of the alleged driver, who was recognized, is expected soon.
