

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1929, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 13. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 23, 1941

COLONEL LUBECK

Colonel Eric M. Lubeck, father of Mrs. William Randolph Jackson and Mrs. Vivian Moore, died in the Veteran's Hospital at Dearborn, Michigan, on January 22nd. Burial in Detroit.

Bingo—Blankets—Britain

These three B's tell the whole story. With every ten cent card you buy in the Bingo game on Monday evening next at Sunnydale, you are helping to provide the funds essential for the purchase of warm blankets for those unfortunates who are spending the nights in cold air raid shelters. Lefty Flynn, Dudley Smith and Carter Brown are in charge of the tables and will present the cash prizes to the lucky winners. Bring a pocket full of change with you, if you want to return home richer than you came. Admission is free and everybody is welcome.—IVAN.

George S. Jenks At Rotary

"Some Experiences of a Country School Teacher 50 Odd Years Ago" will be the subject of Geo. S. Jenks' talk at the Tryon Rotary Club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnydale. Mr. Jenks who attended Michigan university taught school between terms and he will give an account of some of his experiences.

Tobruk in North Africa falls to British.

Wendell Willkie flew to England on Wednesday to study conditions first hand.

Miss Lincoln on Committee For World Student Service

Greensboro, Jan. 22.—Plans are going forward rapidly at Woman's College for the annual World Student Service Fund and the Refugee drive which will get underway March 4th, according to announcement from Dr. W. C. Jackson, dean of administration, honorary chairman.

Directing the drive will be Miss Helen Boyd, director of religious activities; Miss Louise Alexander, associate professor of political science; Miss Bess Johnson, of Henderson, president of the Y. W. C. A.; and Miss Elizabeth Patten of Raleigh, president of the Student Body. Miss Peggy Lincoln of Tryon is a member of the Publicity committee.

Big Poultry Shipment

The second cooperative poultry shipment from Polk County proved to be a real sale day for farmers. Eighty-four farmers in twelve different communities sold 4,147 pounds of poultry which brought the farmers $540.36.

Joe B. Wilson of Cooper's Gap made the biggest sale which was 628 pounds for which he got $87.64.

Colored Man For Army

Harvey Ferguson, volunteer with order No. 286, will leave the Polk County Draft Board for Ft. Bragg on January 30th. Substitutes for replacement in case Ferguson is not accepted are Ernest Counts, George Washington Edwards and Stanley Henry King.