Capture Whiskey

A six-mile chase early Sunday morning by Highway Patrolman Robert Miller and Policeman Donald Flynn of Tryon ended in a little-travelled road off the main Asheville-Spartanburg highway above Melrose, with the officers in possession of a 1939 eight-cylinder sedan, 120 gallons of contraband whiskey, two men and their woman companion.

The chase was started from the intersection of the Rutherford-Asheville highway in the Tryon city limits about 4 o'clock, and ended only when the patrol car closed in on the liquor-laden machine on the road above Melrose.

The occupants of the machine were listed at the county jail where they were placed to await trial at the next term of Federal court in Asheville as Crawford

Ross, Vance Phillips and Mrs. Minnie Bridgeman.

Miss Helen Ferris of Montclair, N. J., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas E. Brown, on Lanier street.
