To Receive Silver Beaver Awards

Gastonia, N. C., Jan. 27.—Three awards for distinguished service to boyhood will be conferred upon leaders in the character building and citizenship training program of the Boy Scouts of America in the area of the Piedmont Council on the occasion of the annual meeting and banquet of the Council which will be held at Gastonia on Tuesday night, January 28th.

The awards will be made to Rev. William S. Stoney of Morganton, Rev. J. Lewis Thornburg of Statesville and William T. Spencer of Gastonia. These three men have been associated in the leadership of Scouting for a long period of years during which time they have served in various capacities and their records have been outstanding. During the past several years Rev. Stoney has served as Vice President of Piedmont Council and as chairman of the Burke County District; Rev. J. Lewis Thornburg has served as a Vice President of the Council and as chairman of the Iredell County District; W. T. Spencer has served as chairman on Finance for the greater Gastonia District and as a member of the Executive Board and other important Committees.

A limited number of Silver Beaver awards are made each year by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America thru Scout Councils to men who have distinguished themselves in service to boys.
