CURB REPORTER

"Best wishes to The Bulletin!"

I'd like so much to say. I'm sure that Friday, YOUR Thirteenth, will be a Lucky Day!" writes a New England friend on the 13th anniversary of The Bulletin, today The Public library at Lynn, N. C., is in need of a linoleum rug, size 10x12, new or second-hand. Anyone caring to help cover this need, may notify Miss Jennie Ballard at Lynn or Miss Virginia Bland at Tryon. Misses Frances Ross and Ellis Sheridan, who have been reading the Bulletin at Naples, Fla., have sent $10 to the Birtish War Relief Here's a message from the Lefty Flynns, p. Many happy returns to you and The Bulletin and all good wishes for the future." And at this point I'd like to remember "Red" Harrison, the first person to volunteer a subscription to The Bulletin when we were giving them away. And the first year or so when we wondered whether subscriptions would be renewed Mrs. Andrew Law, was always the first to send a check with a little note of appreciation which meant as much as the check, "believe it or not!" From Washington, D. C., comes a greeting from Cartoonist C. K. Berryman, originator of the Teddy Bear. A cartoon of the
