From Mayor of Ocala, Fla.

Senator F. P. Bacon,
Tryon, N. C.

Dear Senator:

Very much to my surprise, and pleasantly so, I found on my desk when I came down a box with a neck-tie made by the Appalachian Hand Weavers of Tryon, N. C., in same, with your name on the box. I wish to assure you that I appreciate beyond words this courtesy.

I am very sorry, indeed, not to have met you all, personally, but I am trying to get over an attack of "flu" and have not been feeling very well for the last several days.

The package, and thought, coming from your town is quite significant to me for I lived there in 1903, my father having died in Tryon in November, 1902. We lived in a house just north and east of the railroad station at the top of the hill—a rather large, two-story house, which possibly is, or is not, in Tryon at this time. You can understand, naturally, my attachment for Tryon after knowing these facts. It has always been my desire to visit the town, again, and I assure you if I ever get in that neighborhood it will be one of my stops.

Hoping that you all enjoyed your visit to Ocala, and assuring you that it was a pleasure for the City, and all of its inhabitants, to have you with us, with kindest personal regards, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

M. C. Izlar, Mayor.
