

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., FEBRUARY 19, 1941

$84 FOR THE GREEKS

At the Bingo party on Monday at Sunnydale $75 was raised instead of $35 as published Tuesday. In addition $9 has been contributed by persons interested in Greece's fight for freedom. Donations may be sent to Julian B. Hester at the bank, C. J. Lynch or Dudley C. Smith.

RED CROSS NEWS

Another shipment of dresses and baby layettes has been sent from Tryon by the local Red Cross, Mrs. George Cathey stated today. There were two large boxes of them. Mrs. Cathey also states that plenty of yarn for socks and sweaters is on hand for those desiring to knit.

FLAGS PRESENTED TO POLK COUNTY SCHOOLS

At an impressive service at the Tryon Theatre on Tuesday night United States flags were presented to representatives of all the schools in Polk County. Dr. Geo. Farrand Taylor made the inspiring presentation address. C. J. Lynch was master of ceremonies. The flags were the gift of the Tryon Kiwanis and Rotary clubs who were represented on the stage by F. P. Bacon, Julian B. Hester and Dudley C. Smith for Rotary; George A. Cathey, C. W. Nessmith and Tom Costa for Kiwanis. Eagle Boy Scout Jimmie Baker made the bugle calls and the flag was held by Eagle Scout Harold Taylor. Other Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts were present in uniform to assist in the service and to salute the flag.

CURB REPORTER

Note from Town Manager C. H. Helms states that he had been awfully busy but that he got away for a few hours deep sea fishing at Miami and was lucky to land a 15-pound kingfish. Here's a fish story handed in by Ed Samples which he dedicates to Hinton Thompson and Burton Williams: "A neighbor of mine hooked a fish last summer which was strong enough to overpower him. In the struggle my neighbor not only lost the fish but his g'asses, watch and a ten dollar gold piece. Later in the year he succeeded in landing the fish in the same spot. When the fish was dragged ashore it wore the spectacles and held the watch under one fin. When the fish was dressed the ten dollars with six per cent interest were found in its stomach."—Charles F. Turman, Parksley, Va. . . . Friends of Miss Edith M. Thurston, formerly a resident of Tryon, will learn with regret of her illness at Cedar Spring, S. C. Miss Thurston is superintendent of the primary department of the South Carolina State School for the Blind and Deaf . . . Card from Mrs. Lincoln states that Dr. Lincoln enters Memorial hospital in New York this weekend for an operation . . . Donations to
-----Continued on Back Page-----