TRYON SCHOOL NEWS

We have had quite a number of books given us this winter for which we are very appreciative. Among them is a very fine collection from the library of the late Mr. Lightner. These were given to the school by his daughters, Mrs. Ernest Hopf and Mrs. Martha Lightner Boone. A mural was also included, showing New York in its early days when it was known as New Amsterdam. This we have hung over an archway in the lower hall where all may see.

The St. Agnes Guild also made us a very substantial gift of books. The Lanier library and individual friends of the school have contributed numerous worthwhile books.

Jefferson W. Coe of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Jefferson Coe.

Good singing and instrumental music at the Garrison Chapel Baptist church Thursday night at 8. Presenting the Camp wonder singers, featuring the blind boy with the string music; also vocal singing. You will miss a real treat of your life if you fail to hear them. Given in behalf of the Baptist Training Schools.

For delicious home made cakes, plain decorated, call 258-J. Also cup cakes, cookies, doughnuts, fresh baked white or brown bread and rolls. Mrs. J. S. (Dick) Kell.—Adv. w's.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest gratitude to everyone for the many kindnesses shown and for the many beautiful floral tributes during the illness and death of our beloved husband, father and grandfather.

The Barber Family, and Children.

The Blue Ridge Weavers offer you the opportunity of inspecting the Native crafts of the Southern mountains. Here, assembled with great care and in real appreciation of the true beauty and natural artistic expression of these mountain folk, you will find the most complete collection of every form of mountain handicraft—from tiny carved animals to tavern tables, from a lovely necktie to the homespun for a suit, from the dainty cocktail napkin to coverlets for the bed. You will be most agreeably impressed by this unusually wide variety of articles for your own use or as gifts.

Every gift is packed in a gift box with expert care and shipped according to your directions. Our mail shipments to all parts of the country is a special feature of the service rendered by us.
