Junior Order to Install

The members of the New Council Junior Order United American Mechanics will hold their initiatory service this Wednesday. Thirty-five members of Degree Team will come down from Biltmore and Asheville to confer the degrees and install the new officers. The members of the new council from Greer will also visit Tryon to see the work conferred.

This meeting should have been held several weeks ago but influenza and misunderstanding between Greer and Tryon and Degree Team has caused the delay. Chas. Holsonback, state secretary of South Carolina; Olin D. Johnston, former governor of South Carolina, and Press Devore, South Carolina game warden will also be present.

The meeting will not conflict with prayer meeting as work will start later. R. A. Wilson and Robert S. McFarland will have charge of the meeting.
