

Polk Cage Results

By Seth Vining, Jr.

With every team having just a few more games to play after a full season's schedule it is just about decided on which teams will enter the County Tournament as favorites, so here are how the teams stand in the county at present.

Girls—

	Won	Lost
Saluda	4	0
Green Creek	6	1
Columbus	2	5
Sunny View	0	6

Boys—

	Won	Lost
Green Creek	7	0
Tryon	6	0
Saluda	2	3
Sunny View	3	5
Columbus	0	9

Here are some of the last week's scores:

Boys—

Tryon, 46	Sunny View, 15
Green Creek, 41	Columbus, 21
Saluda, 32	Columbus, 24
Tryon, 41	Sunny View, 19
Hollis, 50	Green Creek 16

Girls—

Saluda, 30	Columbus 12
Green Creek, 51	Hollis, 13
Green Creek, 23	Columbus, 0

ON RADIO

Mrs. Harkness Smith and Mrs. E. Milton Dexter will broadcast over the Asheville radio station on Wednesday, March 5th, from 3 to 3:15 p. m. They will represent the Tryon Garden Club and will speak on the conservation of wild flowers.

Two more Registered Milking Shorthorn bull calves were sold this week by Brownhurst Farms for shipment to Buncombe county. They are to be used for crossing on grade dairy type heifers to improve the size and also milk and meat qualities of the progeny from this mating.

NOTICE: There will be a chittling supper tonight in St. Luke's dining room. Public invited. Sponsored by Celestial City Group.—Adv. p

—Enjoy—

Horseback Riding

Phones 89 and 268-J

ANDREWS STABLES

Plant Cover Crops—Fight Erosion

Drink to Your Health

From CHILDHOOD TO OLD AGE MILK is nature's nearest perfect food. You can afford to drink plenty of it because it pays dividends in added health and zest for living. PASTEURIZED MILK is safe. For early morning delivery phone 149—

Kalmia Dairy