The Theme Is Most Timely And Significant

On the first day of Lent, for more than 25 years, World Observance of the Day of Prayer has followed the course of the sun around the earth. The theme for this year's program, as prepared for us by the committee in Shanghai, China, is "Thy Kingdom Come". This is the theme upon which the union services in Tryon will also be based, as we meet today (Friday) at 5 o'clock in the Episcopal church and at 8 o'clock in the Methodist church.

Last night as we went to our beds, a new day was dawning in Honolulu, where Hawaiians, Chinese, Japanese, Americans, Spanish and English met to pray for peace between their homelands. Then as the day moved on to weary, war-torn Shanghai, 18 nationalities took part in union services. In Egypt, Greek Orthodox and Coptic churches united in meetings. For the twelfth year in Athens, the American church was filled with Greeks, Turks, Armenians and English. In the great Cathedral in Johannesburg, South Africa, a racial drama of great beauty and meaning was enacted, as Zulus, Kaffis, half-castes, natives, English and American residents kneel side by side in prayer. Only in Nazi-dominated Europe is the picture dim, but last year in Denmark, Holland, Sweden and Norway, and in the British Isles the World Day of Prayer was observed. Now in the midst of war it is certain that more than ever the hearts of the Opportunity For A Good Investment; Says Mayor E. E. Missildine

During the past ten years thousands of people have enjoyed the use of Harmon Field. While this property is owned by the Town of Tryon it is under the supervision and management of a local commission. Men who are devoting their time and energy, free of cost, in making Harmon Field a success. No financial aid is given by the town as the property is outside of the corporate limits.

Since the fire new buildings are being erected; Athletic Field House, all the year 'round shower baths, ladies' rest rooms.

It has been my pleasure to inspect this work with Mr. C. J. Lynch, chairman of the board, and when finished I am sure you will agree with me it will be complete in every detail.

I know of no one thing that has helped to build Tryon and this community to a greater degree than Harmon Field. No more beautiful spot can be found and no better place for the building of character and there you find a welcome to the peoples of all classes young and old.

Like every other enterprise of value it requires money to do the necessary things. I urge you to send your check for any amount to Mr. C. J. Lynch, chairman, today and begin to receive that one-hundred percent dividend feeling that will surely be yours in the realization that you are a part of an organization that is work-
