

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1941

Baptist Brotherhood Meets Tonight

The Baptist Brotherhood will meet tonight at 7 o'clock at the church. Rev. Archie Ellis of the Andrum Baptist church will be the guest speaker.

Hound Judge Named

C. W. Ballenger, chairman of the world's largest Hound Show, has announced that Joseph G. Darby of Pittsburgh, Pa. has been secured to judge the Tryon Hound Show on April 23rd, at Harmon Field.

Mrs. Dwight Morrow to Speak

Mrs. Dwight Morrow will deliver an address in favor of the Lend-Lease Bill over the Columbia Broadcasting System Saturday, March 8th, 12:45-1:00 P. M. (EST).

We call this to your attention as a program in which you will undoubtedly be interested and suggest that you have as many people listen as possible in your community.

Given U. S. Flag

The Girls Scouts have received a large silk American flag, as a gift from Mrs. D. C. Brundage, who has been interested in the organization since it started in Tryon, and is now a member of the Troop Committee. At the regular meeting on Wednesday, a number of the girls passed badges for the Court of Awards, which will be held in the near future.

—Elizabeth Anne Vining.

Reynolds Speaks Up

“Waldemar E. Kilpin, Tryon, N. C.

“Answering your wire. I cannot understand why you state my action at this time is very confusing. I am for the United States in preference to any other country in the world as I owe allegiance only to America and one flag. As to who wins the war I shall state very frankly I hope Great Britain wins because I would rather continue to exist under status quo than gamble on anything in the future. I am pro-America and not pro anything else. This answers your inquiry as to whether I hate Great Britain or hate Hitler. In reference to your statement about my stand on this all important issue may decide my whole political career please believe me when I say I have examined entirely every political ambition in my profound consideration of this question. I have in mind only the future of my country and not my political career. We mortals of course shall be here upon this earth but a short time but we who love our country want the American way of life to continue always. My opinion is that the passage of the lend-lease bill is merely another step towards war which may lead to a declaration of war and into war. Regards,

“Robert R. Reynolds, USS!”

Senator Reynolds has cast himself as a “Public Liability”—an obstacle to getting things done. It seems he “protesteth his Ameri-

—CONTINUED ON BACK PAGE—