TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAR. 13, 1941

A Philadelphia woman writes the Tryon Chamber of Commerce for a small cottage or apartment unfurnished for about $25 per month, year 'round. Another woman in New York City is looking for a permanent home. If you have something to offer get your real estate agent to look into these prospects . . . As all the world loves a lover and success attracts success so does the world help those who help themselves. And that's why friends from out of town are rallying to the support of Harmon Field. District Highway Engineer Hugh Noell of Shelby donates $1, Highway Commissioner T. Max Watson of Forest City contributes $5. Mrs. Schuyler Hamilton gives $2.50, and here's a check from Mrs. Jefferson Coe for $5. No gift too small or too large to be appreciated and everybody will have a part in the achievement . . . E. Perry Manville, Jr., flying instructor at Anderson Airport, is training ten students from Clemson college . . . E. W. Justice of Rutherfordton, State Employment official says there is a big demand for male stenographers, bookkeeping machine operators, cooks and domestic help. He is in Tryon very Thursday at the old Town Hall to help employer and employee make connection . . . The Greeks continue to win against
