DOG SHOW RESULTS

A large crowd turned out for Tryon's 10th annual Any and All Dog Show on Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field. Many visitors were present including some from Asheville. As far as the dogs were concerned it was a democratic affair with the mongrels mingling with the thoroughbreds.

The judges were George D. Wick, Jr., Chas. H. Conrad, and Mrs. Chas. B. DuCharme and C. W. Ballenger for the bird dogs.

Following the grand parade, nine classes were judged and the winners were announced as follows:

Class 2: Dog with the largest feet—1st, Breezy Zo, Jr., owned by R. W. Shelley; 2nd, Thor, owned by Capt. Zogbaum. Class 3: Cleverest dog—1st, Muffins and Rags, owned by Mrs. J. W. Coe; 2nd, Skipper, owner by Mrs. Jas. R. Trowbridge; 3rd, Sammy, owned by Edith Lukins. Class 4: Tail waggiest dog—1st, Judy, owned by W. C. Hill; 2nd, Topsy and Tim, owned by Edith Lukins; 3rd, Materia Medica, owned by Mrs. Austin Woody. Class 5: Classiest combination of dog and owner—1st, Cracker, owned by Mrs. Trowbridge, and Topsy and Tim, owned by Edith Lukins; 2nd, Materia Medica, owned by Mrs. Woody; 3rd, Muffins, owned by Mrs. Calhoun, and Oliver, owned by George Wick. Class 6: Working bird dog—1st, Heathbrae of Birchwood, owned by Mrs. E. C. Savage; 2nd, Cyrena, owned by Mrs. M. Smith. Class 7: Best matched pair of dogs—1st, Bill and Pete, owned by Jim Kuykendall; 2nd, Materia Medica, owned

CURB REPORTER

The Tryon First Baptist Sunday school which held rummage sales, gave parties and sold suppers to raise money with which to build a much needed Sunday school plant with class rooms, kitchen and dining room had the joy and satisfaction recently of achieving something the members had dreamed of for years; and that spirit of cooperation and working together with many little things to do a big thing must have made them appreciate the efforts being made to rebuild Harmon Field, for the Sunday school children with their pennies, nickels and dimes have just sent a check for $10 for Harmon Field. And here's another check of $10 from Mrs. Jed L. Washburn of Duluth. Donation of $10 from the Joel Stockards of Chicago, and $1 from Miss Susan Harper of Tryon, making a total of $31 for the day. Charlie Lynch says if he can get enough money before the Horse Show he wants to put up a ladies' rest room near the Horse Show ring. Those long barns with portable sides will make it possible for Sunday schools and other large crowds to have picnics rain or shine now . . . Little Jim Kuykendall, son of the caretaker at Harmon Field, entered two of his little mongrel pups in the dog show in the best matched pair class alongside some
