

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 1941

Junior Horsemanship Show, March 27th

The third annual Tryon Junior Horsemanship Show will be held on Thursday, March 27th, at 3 p. m., at the New Market Ring. Watch The Bulletin for a list of classes. Remember we want all juniors 18 years and under to participate. There will be classes for all.—Mrs. David Hedekin.

Mrs. Emma Barnett

Mrs. Emma Barnett, 69, a resident of Landrum 30 years, died at her residence at 7:30 o'clock Thursday after an illness of three weeks.

Mrs. Barnett, who was a native of Greenville County, was the widow of John Barnett. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Jack Foster of Columbus, N. C., and Mrs. Vance Settle of Landrum.

The funeral will be conducted Saturday at 11 a. m., at the Ebenezer Welcome Baptist church in upper Greenville County. The Rev. J. G. Stroud will officiate at the last rites, with burial in the church cemetery.

ROTARY LADIES NIGHT

Plans are complete for the Rotary Ladies Night program to be held tonight at 7 o'clock at Sunnydale at which time Dr. C. Sylvester Green, President of Coker college will be the guest speaker—Louis F. Bunte, soloist and Mrs. Bunte, pianist, will give musical selections.

St. Luke's Hospital Assn. Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of St. Luke's Hospital Association Executive Board was held on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Mae Irene Flentye. Retiring chairman R. H. Brady stated that the support of the hospital by its friends had been very gratifying and that only a few pledges had not been paid, but that most of them were expected to be paid sometime this week.

Secretary Volney T. Barnette reported that approximately $5,000 would be needed again this year to supplement the revenue received from paying patients. This fund is to be raised by the trustees and the hospital association.

The Trustees of the Hospital are Julian Calhoun, chairman; F. P. Bacon, J. C. Kimberly, Ralph C. Erskine, Chas. G. Sewall, Russell Walcott, Samuel A. Bingham, Mrs. Bernard Sharp, Bishop Frank Hale Touret.

The Hospital Association elected Seth M. Vining as chairman for this year's campaign; G. Isham Henderson, vice-chairman; B. L. Ballenger, treasurer; Volney T. Barnette, secretary.

J. T. Arledge was appointed chairman of the county friends of the hospital. K. A. Bowen, J. M. Baker and Miss Flentye in charge of solicitors.

Others on the Executive Committee are C. M. Howes, Alex Arledge, Jerry Drew, Dudley C. Smith.

The date of the campaign will be announced by Mayor E. E. Missildine.