

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., APRIL 2, 1941

Tryon School Calendar

- April 18,—Music Recital.
- April 23-25—Spring holidays.
- May 2—Senior Class play.
- May 9—Junior-Senior Entertainment.
- May 14-20—Senior Exams.
- May 16—Band concert.
- May 21-27—School Examinations
- May 25—Baccalaureate sermon.
- May 28—Class Night Entertainment.
- May 29—7th Grade Graduation.
- May 30—Senior Graduation.

TEACHERS TO ATTEND MEETING IN ASHEVILLE

Delegates from the Tryon-Saluda Unit to the State Teachers convention in Asheville, April 3 to 5th are Saluda: Mrs. Clara F. Watson, Mrs. Dexter Jeter, alternate. Lynn: Mrs. C. W. Kittrell; Miss Bessie Jane Helton, alternate. Tryon: Miss Sue Burr Johnson; Miss Alice Lea Williams as alternate.

All teachers of the Tryon school will attend the Friday afternoon and evening sessions. Various departmental meetings will be held during the afternoon, and addresses by Dr. Clyde Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and by Dr. Will Durant, noted philosopher and historian, will feature the evening program.

Classes will be dismissed at 12 o'clock Friday in order that all the teachers may attend the afternoon meetings. The delegates will go to Asheville on Thursday.

Faith and Future

A few days ago the writer was surprised to hear a public spirited person express the opinion that this is no time to take on extra responsibilities or obligations that involve serious risks, such as the purchase of land, with its possible burden of taxation.

Let us all admit without reservation that the country is dedicated to a great task, and that we are all expected to stand prepared for personal sacrifices and curtailments. We have voted for that understanding, and we are, I believe, ready to meet it. But is it not also true that this is a time to express our faith in the policy adopted by the Government with our approval? And is there any better way to show that faith than to take a good risk or assume a new obligation when it presents itself? It is a tried and tested principle that when there is faith to undertake a good thing the means will come to light in good season. It is also a good old saying that those who are doing most for a cause are usually the ones who will take on one thing more—"go the second mile."

This is a time to conserve, that is true, but conservation means using our resources wisely, not storing up or saving for the worst that may come. This is a year to acquire good property, to own a home, to produce, to plant, to sow and reap, rejoicing that we are free to do it.—Oh don't tell us that we are over-produced, that the country is overflowing with goods and food for which there is no market. Tell us instead how

—CONTINUED ON BACK PAGE—