

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APR. 9, 1941

Bacon Announces For Mayor's Office

Town Commissioner F. P. Bacon has announced his candidacy for Mayor by filing his name with the Town Manager C. H. Helms, according to the official records at the Town Hall. Senator Bacon has served as mayor twice and as town commissioner numerous times. With the announcement of Mayor Missildine for re-election, this makes two candidates for the office of Mayor.

Andrews, White Announce For Town Commissioner

R. Ben White and R. O. Andrews, two members of the present board of Town Commissioners have announced in today's Bulletin that they will offer for re-election. As F. P. Bacon, the third Town Commissioner has announced for the office of Mayor there will be room for another Commissioner candidate without opposition until more than three offer for the three available places.

Square Dance Tonight

The Tryon Volunteer Firemen's Square Dance for the benefit of British Fire Fighters, will be held tonight at the Tryon school gymnasium. The public is invited to attend. All proceeds go toward the relief of British fire fighters, says Chief J. S. Arledge of the Tryon Fire Department.

Pupils Get Prizes Today In Clean-Up Week Contests

At a gathering of pupils and Garden Club visitors held today at noon in the auditorium of the Tryon high school, prizes were awarded to winners in the various contests arranged in the schools in connection with Clean-Up Week, which is now in progress.

Mrs. Harkness Smith, president of the Garden Club, awarded the prizes as follows:

Primary grades, folders: First, Vance McCown, Vernon Foster and Kenneth Durham, teacher, Miss Johnson; second, Clarence Kuykendall, Junior Smith and Doris Owens, teacher, Mrs. Watson; also awarded second prizes, Ann Wallace, John Felts and Pauline Blackwell, teacher, Miss Daniels; third, Billy Rhodes, Jean Arledge and Billy Fisher, teacher, Mrs. McGeachy; also awarded third prizes, Van Green, Ruby Pittman and Shirley Ann Speigle, teacher, Mrs. Caldwell.

High school, essays: First, Evelyn Taylor-Tanner; second, Evelyn McClure; third, Evelyn Cromer; posters, first Jane Meriwether; second, Jean Brantley; third, Evelyn Cromer.

The results of contests in the colored school will be announced Thursday.

Greeks Fight Back

While the Greeks are actually fighting the Italians and the Germans a movie entitled "The Greeks Fight Back" is being shown tonight and Thursday at Tryon Theatre. A collection box to receive contributions for the Greek cause is at the theatre.