JOHN C. CAMPBELL FOLK SCHOOL DANCERS

What is the John C. Campbell Folk School and the dancers who come to Tryon on April 25th? The school was founded by Mrs. Campbell and Miss Butler thirteen years ago, after making extensive study of the Danish Folk Schools in Denmark. The object of these schools is the improvement of farm life. Pupils must be at least 18 years of age. The boys work on the farm, in the fields, gardens or dairy, the girls in the kitchen, laundry, craft room or doing housework for the family of thirty-five. The cultural side of life is not neglected, weaving, wood carving and singing games are taught. Danish singing games are really folk dances. These students come to Tryon for the second time on the evening of April 25th at the Parish House. Do not miss this delightful entertainment.—CONTRIBUTED.

The condition of George Aid, who was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia, was reported satisfactory this morning in a telephone call to E. Perry Manville.
