They thank him for the splendid way they were taken care of the night they arrived in Tryon and for the many courtesies shown during the show News Bureau from Greensboro states that Miss Mary Palmer will play a supporting role in "Berkeley Square," a production to be put on by the Woman's College Playlikers on May 10 . . . Editor Carl Goerch of The State Magazine, Raleigh, said the barbecue meat at Harmon Field on Horse Show Day was the best he had ever eaten in Western North Carolina Judge Joe Darby of Pittsburgh who has judged a number of National shows, says the Tryon Hound Show was the best he had ever seen in the United States In listing the players on the Adams-Millis baseball team on Thursday the position of catcher was left out by mistake. There couldn't be a baseball game without a catcher. Keith Arledge will hold down this position for the local team New subscriptions to the Bulletin have been entered for Gaither Thompson at Fort Bragg, N. C., Jimmy Marshall at Winnetka, Ill., J. E. Brownlee at Spartanburg.

President Brown Thanks Show Contributors

To thank every one individually who helped at the Horse and Hound Show would be impossible since so many who were not on committees gave of their time and thought in making this our greatest horse and hound show. Thanks to Tryon seems the best way of putting it. For a community to have such a harmonious gala occasion with strife, unhappiness and discord rampant thruout the world is a real indication of Tryon's firm foundation. Exhibitors, visitors and our countrymen friends all expressed such appreciation of Tryon's genuine hospitality. It is a thrill to have the honor of being chosen to serve as chairman of this event and I thank you all in behalf of the Riding & Hunt Club as well as myself. Tryon will continue to be an unspoiled paradise so long as such community spirit continues.

Carter P. Brown, President,
Tryon Riding & Hunt Club.
