

Looking Westward For the Light

Many of us listened on Sunday afternoon to the deeply moving address of Prime Minister Churchill, which seemed to ring as never before with a faith and resolution that are super human. In closing he made an appeal to America, using a quotation from a poem written many years ago by an English poet, Arthur Hugh Clough. Perhaps the whole poem would be of interest:

"Say not the struggle naught
availeth,
The labor and the wounds are vain;
The enemy faints not, nor faileth,
And as things have been, things remain.

If hopes were dupes fears may be liars;

It may be in yon smoke concealed Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers,"

And, but for you, possess the field.

For while the tired waves, vainly breaking,

Seem here no painful inch to gain.
Far back, through creeks and inlets making,

Comes silent, flooding in, the main.

And not by eastern windows only,
When daylight comes, comes in the light;

In front the sun climbs slow, how slowly;

But westward, look, the land is bright!"

In its application to the moment and to America as Britain's hope this needs no comment, but it does need and deserve several thoughtful readings.—E. G. C.

CONFISCATE LIQUOR

Sheriff W. D. Hines' department took possession of three gallons of liquor this morning found in the home of Floyd McLean, colored. Justice of the Peace R. A. Leonard issued a warrant for McLean's arrest, charging him with being in possession of liquor for retail sale without having paid taxes on it.

COMMUNITY PLAYERS

The Community Players met Monday night at Oak Hall and elected the following executive committee John L. Brown, Dr. William McCall, Marcus Nash, Mortimer Flack, Miss Elisabeth Watson and Miss Elizabeth Kerkulas. The entertainment of the evening consisted of two original plays which were produced and presented within 15 minutes. The membership was divided into two groups, each given the same properties, and told to have an original play ready in 15 minutes. This was done with surprising success, to the entertainment of all.

Mrs. C. J. Buchanan and her guests left this morning for Indianapolis after a two weeks visit at her home on Lake Lanier.
