State Magazine Publishes "Double Truck" on Tryon Horse and Hound Show

Editor Carl Goerch of the State Magazine, Raleigh, visited the Tryon Horse and Hound Show for the first time last week and this week's issue of the State carries two pages about the community's most outstanding event of the year. There are two columns of news and six large pictures. The photos show Governor Broughton and party riding the tallyho around the show ring, Carroll P. Rogers broadcasting attended by Charlie Lynch, Governor Broughton and Captain Zogbaum. Three other pictures show scenes of the Horse Show and another of the Hound Show.

Mr. Goerch says, "The Tryon people are noted for their hospitality and they did everything within their power to make the occasion a pleasant one for everybody. Incidentally, if anybody ever tells you that the folks up in the western part of the state don't know how to prepare barbecue, don't you believe a word of it. They served some barbecue at the show which was as fine as anybody could ever hope to prepare, and they cooked it for 24 hours before serving it."

Mr. Goerch also writes of Harmon Field, "It's one of the most interesting, one of the most fascinating and one of the most beautiful scenes to be found in North Carolina. With towering mountains making an effective backdrop, the show is held in a little
