Entertain Basketball Teams

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr., entertained the Tryon high school basketball teams on Monday evening with a banquet at their home. Miniature basket goals and back boards made the place cards and each member of the varsity was presented a small gold basketball with enameled blue "T" and "1941 Champions" engraved on it. The Tryon team members enjoying the event were Harold Taylor, Seth Vining, Jr., Jimmy Jackson, Frank McFarland, Marion Gren, Edward Beatson, Jack Melton, Burrell Byers, Jimmy Baker, Julius Earl Brock. Other guests included Coach M. B. Caldwell, A. M. Chisolm, Harold Culler and Dutton Beatson. The Tryon team won the Polk County Championship for 1940-41 for the first time in many years, and reached the semi-finals in the Blue Ridge Conference tournament.

Golf Tournament Wednesday

The final mixed foursome golf tournament and tea of the present series will be held on Wednesday afternoon at the Tryon Country Club. Mrs. Jefferson Coe will be chairman of the hostess committee for the tea. The Club greens and new rock walls are very inviting now, says Pro Larry Brooks, who is eager to end the series with a bang.

The Town of Tryon is holding a municipal election today. The results will be in Wednesday morning's Asheville Citizen and in the Tryon Daily Bulletin.

Sale of Johnson Place Is Finally Closed

The final papers on the sale of the Tom Johnson place in Columbus township were closed this week, C. J. Lynch, local realtor announced today. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Freeman of Chicago. The transaction has been underway for several weeks. The Johnson farm is one of the best in the county and consists of some 600 acres. Mr. Freeman, who is vice-president of the Midwest Utilities Co., is making extensive improvements on the property and will change its production from cotton, corn, etc., to hay and pasture crops for the purpose of raising beef cattle. Homer Durham is in charge of the farm. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will buy elsewhere in the county and continue to make their home in this section.

A. C. CARPENTER

A. C. Carpenter, 61, of Landrum, died at the hospital this morning. He had been in declining health for some time. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at the Landrum Methodist church of which he was a member of the board of stewards. The Rev. J. G. Stroud of the Methodist church and the Rev. R. A. Ellis of the Baptist church will officiate. The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Belwood of Greenville, S. C., and Miss Dorothy Carpenter of Atlantic City, N. J. Mr. Carpenter was a native of Lincoln County, N. C., son of Pink and Mattie Huss Carpenter.
