

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1941

BASEBALL SATURDAY

Adams-Millis and Hazelwood will play in Tryon at the Adams-Millis park on Saturday afternoon.

ROTARY FRIDAY

Dr. Allen Jones Jervey will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program on Friday at 1 p. m. at Sunnysdale. Major Bernard Sharp will be the speaker.

Free Movies Saturday

The Tryon Riding & Hunt Club will show free motion pictures at the Tryon Theatre on Saturday morning, May 10, at 10 a. m. The raising and protection of fish and birds will be among the features of the pictures. All young people are especially invited for its educational benefits. A State official will be present to explain the work of conservation and propagation of wild life.

COLUMBUS VOTES

Unopposed for his office as mayor of the town of Columbus, J. R. Burgess was re-elected Tuesday.

In the race for alderman Burley Johnson polled 64 votes; R. S. Ramsey, 63; and Donald Spurlin, 65.

Roy T. Baisden was elected mayor of Saluda over Herbert E. Pace.

Hcuse passed Roosevelt's ship seizure bill. Sends it up to uncertain senate fate 266 to 120 votes.

128 German seaman arrested in connection with fifth column activities.

CURB REPORTER

Mrs. Anne Bosworth Greene, the authoress, addressed the Converse college assembly on Wednesday and delighted the students with a talk on writing books . . . This week is Rural Mail Box Improvement Week and the Post Office Department is eager to have rural patrons make their boxes attractive by painting the posts, planting flowers around them and doing anything to make them look better. Such work improves the value of the place and the entire mail route . . . Tryon Chamber of Commerce has received inquiries from people in Columbus, O., Philadelphia, and Jacksonville, Fla., wanting accommodations at boarding house or small apartments, also for boating and swimming . . . Dr. George Farrand Taylor is attending a regional meeting of Phi Beta Kappas at Winthrop college today . . . The Auberge and Spanish Court are advertising special summer rates in today's Bulletin. So if you have friends who are interested in coming to Tryon for the summer clip out the ad and mail it to them . . . John Paul Lucas, editor of the Duke Power Magazine and head of the advertising and sales department visited Manager K. A. Bowen of the Tryon office on Wednesday . . . Some things hold their own but two things near

CONTINUED ON BACK PAGE