

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, MAY 19, 1941

Kiwanis at Asheville

There will be no Kiwanis meeting in Tryon this week as the Tryon club will meet with the Division One clubs in Asheville on Friday night. Governor Ray Furr of Rock Hill, S. C. will deliver the principal address. It is a ladies night event and Tryon Kiwanians are expected to take their wives.

Horse Not Mad

An official report from the State laboratory states that Mrs. Schyler Hamilton's horse which had to be killed because of illness, was not a victim of rabies as no trace of the disease could be found.

BANK CLOSED TUESDAY

Tryon Bank and Trust Co. will close on Tuesday in celebration of Mecklenburg Independence Declaration Day.

Mrs. Margaret Culkin Banning entertained at dinner on Saturday at her home, Friendly Hills, in honor of Camp Croft officers General and Mrs. Oscar W. Griswold, Colonel and Mrs. J. H. Howe, Colonel Woodfin Jones, Major and Mrs. W. H. Arnold, and Colonel and Mrs. Roger Hillman.

Mrs. Dudley C. Smith has returned home after treatment at St. Lukes hospital.

Mrs. Hugh Walker and baby, Max Winston have returned home from St. Lukes hospital.

Byron Rector is in Memorial hospital, Charlotte, for treatment.

Another Eagle Here

Dick Arthur, son of Frank Arthur, is expected to receive his Eagle badge and certificate from the national headquarters of the American Boy Scouts tonight when the Polk County Court of Honor meets at the Parish House. Richard passed his final tests at the last court of honor meeting, but the badge and certificate have to come from New York city. The small gold eagle pin will be presented by Scout Executive R. M. Schiele in a very impressive ceremony to which the public is invited. The court of honor will be in charge of acting chairman, R. H. Brady. The eagle rank is the highest in Boy Scout work.

Ship Sunk with Mail

Postmaster W. H. Stearns has received notice of the sinking of the S. S. Ville De Liege last month north of Ireland. It carried 2,369 sacks of mail and parcel post from the United States.

Adams--Millis Wins Again

The Adams-Millis baseball team of the Industrial league defeated Balfour on Saturday at Balfour 9 to 5, making the third straight victory for the Tryon team. Ward and Arledge formed the battery for the locals.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late John S. Melton wish to thank all their friends in Polk County for their many kindnesses during the illness and death of Mr. Melton.