

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1941

Loan Secretary to Speak At Rotary Club Friday

Martin Guadin, secretary State Building & Loan Association of Raleigh will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Sunnysdale. The program will be in charge of John T. Arledge.

POST OFFICE CLOSES HERE ON FRIDAY

In celebration of National Memorial Day the Tryon post office will be closed all day, Friday, May 30th, Postmaster W. H. Stearns announced on Thursday afternoon. The office will be open Saturday afternoons during the summer months and will close on Wednesday afternoons in order to be in harmony with the summer closing of the merchants who will close their places of business on Wednesday afternoons instead of Thursday afternoons as heretofore.

Backing the President

A number of Tryonites, businessmen, clerks and housewives sent a telegram to President Roosevelt last Saturday stating that they backed him 100 per cent and assured him of their support in a demand for freedom of the seas and aid to Britain.

Army rations now provide a great improvement over similar rations issued to U. S. soldiers during the previous six periods of militarization, beginning with the Revolutionary War.

Kiwanis Plans June Convention for Atlanta, Ga.

Coming South for the first time since 1931 when Miami was host, Kiwanis International will gather in Atlanta, Georgia, for a five-day convention June 15-19. Hotel assignments pouring into the Georgia capital indicate that the meeting may be the largest in Kiwanis history. Estimates place the probable attendance at 6,000, including some 2,000 ladies and five or six hundred children.

Each of 61 Georgia Kiwanis Clubs has been assigned to one of the 28 visiting districts of the United States and Canada to assume responsibility for extending true Southern hospitality throughout the five days of the convention. The incoming visitors will be greeted at Kiwanis Information Booths located along principal highways leading into Atlanta. Committees have also been designated to welcome guests arriving by air, rail or bus.

The whole state-wide organization, under the general direction of District Governor Jimmy Carmichael, of Marietta, Georgia, is cooperating in a plan to introduce the visitors to products of Georgia's soil and factories. Floral contributions in the form of famed Thomasville, Georgia, red roses and 8,000 gladioli from Covington, Georgia, will help decorate convention sites. Other localities are furnishing peaches, watermelons, peanuts, cantaloupes and cotton bolls.

The local Atlanta club, under the leadership of President J. C. Wardlaw and General Convention

Continued on Page Two