Polk Students Are Graduated Monday

Greensboro, June 1.—Miss Elizabeth Virginia Egerton, daughter of W. G. Egerton of Mill Spring, will be graduated from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina on June 2, with an A. B. in primary education.

Miss Egerton, a member of the Adelpian society, was a member of the Y. W. C. A. her freshman year. She was a member of the Collegiate 4-H Club her freshman, sophomore, and junior years and was president in her sophomore year. Miss Egerton was on the honor roll and was a member of the Square Dance club her junior year. She was a hall proctor and a member of the Education club her junior year. She now holds a teachers certificate qualifying her to teach in the primary grades of North Carolina. Miss Egerton will be remembered in Tryon most for her splendid talk at the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs when she gave a report on her visit to Washington at the National 4-H club convention which she attended as a delegate from this district.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Egerton and Miss Mollie Egerton drove to Greensboro on Sunday for the commencement exercises.

Greensboro, June 1.—Miss Arpha Burrell of Tryon will be among 385 students to be graduated from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at the 49th annual commence-

Defense Savings Staff Appointed

C. H. Robertson of Greensboro, State Administrator, Defense Savings Staff, announces appointment of Julian B. Hester as the chairman of the Polk County committee. Other community leaders who have been asked to serve on this committee are W. E. Sawyer of Columbus, C. M. Howes, J. T. Arledge, W. C. Ward and Seth M. Vining of Tryon, A. M. Salley and Mrs. Susan Craig of Saluda.

In announcing this new program the Secretary of the Treasury, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., said, "Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps give us all a way to take direct part in building the defense of our Country—an American Way to find the billions needed for National Defense. The United States is today, as it has always been, the best investment in the world. This is an opportunity for each citizen to buy a share in America."

The success of the Defense Savings program will be measured by the number of men, women and children who serve their country by saving. The Secretary of the Treasury has said repeatedly that his chief objective in this program is to spread the cost of defense as widely as possible among the American people. His main purpose is to give every American a sense of direct participation in the financing of national defense.

If the Defense Savings program
