

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

1c PER COPY (The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper) 1c PER COPY
SETH M. VINING, EDITOR $1.50 Year in the Carolinas

Vol. 14, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE. 5, 1941

Organize Polk Cotton Stamp Committee

Formation of a Cotton Stamp Committee for Polk County to cooperate with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in the operation of the Supplementary Cotton Stamp Plan in this area in the relatively near future, was announced today by J. A. Wilson, county agricultural agent.

John Cowan was elected chairman of the committee. Other members representative of the Cotton Trades Industry of Polk County, included: B. L. Ballenger, Miss Ophelia Shields and Tryon Bank & Trust Company.

Mr. Wilson stated that the main purpose of organizing the committee was to assist the government in helping to acquaint all retailers and wholesalers of cotton goods in the County with the manner in which they could cooperate and participate in the benefits of the program.

He added that on June 12th at 7:30 o'clock in the court house a mass meeting of all store operators and their clerks, handling cotton products would be held. In stressing the importance of attending this meeting, Mr. Wilson pointed out that merchants cannot accept Cotton Stamps for redemption by the government until they have completed a "Retailers' Statement" form entitling them to participate. These forms are being mailed to all merchants by the County Agricultural Agent, and the rules and regulations

—CONTINUED ON BACK PAGE—

Recent Additions At Lanier Library

During the past two months the library has received a number of gifts. From Mr. and Mrs. Burchard came twenty-five books, a number of them having the author's autographs, and several of them inscribed to Mr. Burchard. Among other gifts are the following:

The American language, by Mencken; Carillon music and singing towers of the Old World and the New, by Rice; Florida sea shells, by Aldrich and Snyder; Light from Bible prophecy as related to the present crisis, by Bauman; Mental engineering, by Dodge; Social life in the insect world, by Fabre; Trelawny, by Armstrong.

Other new additions are: Death of a lucky lady, by Rath; Flotsam, by Renarque; The incurable romantic, by Roderick Peattie; Lanterns on the Levee, by Percy; Mr. Fortune here, by Bailey; Priest Island, by Watson; Reckon with the river, by McMeekin; They hunted a fox, by Campbell.

Married

Of the 55 marriages recorded in Spartanburg Probate Court Last week two were for couples in this section as follows:

William Moss, 22, and Doris Jeanette Bridgeman, 18, both of Tryon.

Grady Redford, 24, Mill Spring, and Ruth Mooney, 18, of Spindale, N. C.