TRYON BOYS CLUB TO START MONDAY, JUNE 23

The Tryon Boys Club will start its annual summer work on Monday, June 23. All boys between the ages of 9 and 16 who are interested in joining are asked to be at the Tryon school building at 9:30 on that date. The work of the club will take up six weeks of the summer season.

The club was started seven years ago under the leadership of Dr. George F. Taylor, who planned and organized it in a highly efficient manner, running it himself for a period of three years. Other duties made it necessary for Dr. Taylor to give up active leadership. Dr. Taylor still kept his interest in the club and suggested the name of Major W. A. Schilleter who had charge of the organization for the past three summers, but now due to military duties has been forced to give it up. Dr. Taylor again suggested Marcus B. Caldwell who will carry on the club's work for this summer. These suggestions were approved by Mrs. Anne Bosworth Greene whose interest and kindness has made the club possible each summer and, though away, maintains close contact with the progress of the club.

The chief purposes of the club are the development of strong character, sportsmanship, and citizenship. Activities promoting the development of these phases in a young boy's life are stressed each day. The members are given individual opportunities of development and personal leader-
