DR. PLACACK AT ROTARY

Dr. Joseph Placack, Jr., of Cleveland, Ohio, was the guest speaker at the Tryon Rotary Club on Friday noon. Dr. Placack outlined some of the activities of the medical profession in checking disease of men before they get into the army. Douglas Blois had charge of the program. Dr. Placack, who is a prominent surgeon and professor at Western Reserve University, has bought a tract of land here and is making plans to build his permanent home at the foot of Skyuka Mountain.

5¢

The advertisement features a black and white illustration of a plate of food, possibly a sandwich or burger, next to a classic glass bottle of Coca-Cola. The bottle has the iconic script logo and 'TRADE-MARK BOTTLE PAT. 1113-514'. Below the illustration, the word 'DRINK' is written in a small font, followed by the 'Coca-Cola' script logo in a large, stylized font, and 'TRADE-MARK' in a smaller font. At the bottom right, a '5¢' price tag is visible.
